PUNYASHLOK DEVI AHILYABAI lived a pure and satwik life. A Lok Mata who lived her life for the welfare of her praja and Hindu Dharma. By her behavior, Administration and Justice, became a respected goddess to all. An institution named after her has been working in Nagpur for last 60 years. Institution was founded on 25 /10/1965 by Laxmibai Kelkar alias Mausiji. This institution inspires women to live a life for the benefit of society country and religion like Ahilyabai.

The Mythic society Bengaluru

The Mythic Society was founded in 1909 by F.H.Richards. The Mythic Society is a century young pioneer organization in Indic studies in South India established on 5th May, 1909 by a group of European and Indian Savants. It has been apart of cultural and intellectual landscape of Bengaluru, India, for the past 115 years. Since its concerns were for fathoming matters connected with the interpretation of historical, religious and mystical facts of the past, the founders named it 'The Mythic Society', after Greek Mythikos and Latin Mythicus.

The Society is dedicated to research and study the culture, history, archaeology and allied subjects in all their dimensions and also focus on and draw from the wisdom of the Indic past. It is now playing a pioneer role in the conservation of manuscripts and scientific 3-D documentation of stone inscriptions in addition to promoting awareness about tangible heritage in the younger generation.
