It is also a member of Association of Indian Universities (AIU), New Delhi and Consortium of National Law Universities. The University is making rapid progress towards the dream of achieving excellence in the field of legal and justice education with its dedicated faculty members, research associates, research scholars, students and staff under the dynamic guidance of the Chancellor, Hon'ble Shri Justice Bhushan R. Gavai, Judge, Supreme Court of India and Vice Chancellor, Prof. (Dr.) Vijender Kumar Sir.

Centre for IPR:

The Centre for Intellectual Property Rights (CIPR) is one of the Advanced Legal Research Centre of the University intending to promote the Human, Social and Commercial values through exclusive socio-legal research in the field of Intellectual Property Rights. IPR is an evolutionary field. IPR provides an incentive for creativity and the disclosure of information and plays a significant role in encouraging innovations in the form of product/process development leading to technical advancement. Therefore, knowledge about IPR becomes essential in all the fields. Effective Intellectual property (IP) protection has been a critical factor; however, academia is playing a serious catch-up to create awareness of IP.

About The DPIIT-IPR Chair:

The Department for Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade (DPIIT) under the Ministry of Industry and Commerce, selected Maharashtra National Law University, Nagpur for the establishment of the DPIIT IPR Chair, under the Scheme for Pedagogy & Research in IPRs for Holistic Education & Academia (SPRIHA). National Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) Policy, 2016, a vision document that promotes a holistic and conducive ecosystem to catalyze the full potential of intellectual property for India's economic growth and socio-cultural development. The chair was established to fulfill one of the several objectives of strengthening IP Chairs in educational institutes of higher learning to provide quality teaching and research, develop teaching capacity and curricula and evaluate their work on performance-based criteria. Maharashtra National Law University, Nagpur takes pride in achieving approval to set up the IPR Chair to promote Intellectual Property (IP) education and foster IP research.

About FDP:

The Faculty Development Program (FDP) on “Development of Intellectual Property Rights” is designed to empower educators, entrepreneurs, and innovators with comprehensive knowledge and practical skills in the realm of Intellectual Property Rights (IPR). This program delves into the critical importance of IPR for Startups, highlighting Digital IP, trademarks, and, copyrights, serve as vital tools for protecting innovations and establishing a competitive edge in the market. Participants will gain insights into crafting robust IPR strategies that align with their business objectives, ensuring that intellectual assets are safeguarded from infringement and effectively leveraged for growth. Through a series of expert-led lectures, participants will learn how to develop robust IPR strategies that not only protect their innovations but also align with their business objectives. Considering the immense importance of knowledge dissemination towards IP DPIIT IPR Chair, MNLU Nagpur, and CIPR proposes to hold the Faculty Development Program on Development of Intellectual Property Rights from September 23rd to 27th 2024.
